Mike Bishop

Executive Vice President, Product & Technology

Mike Bishop is executive vice president of product and technology and is responsible for technical product strategy, direction and execution. Mr. Bishop brings more than twenty years' experience in enterprise software development and a genuine passion for purposeful technology advancement to his role.

©2022 Enlyte Group, LLC.

mitchell | genex | coventry