Tom Kerr

Director, Public Relations

Location: Wayne, PA

With more than 25 years of experience in medical management media, Tom Kerr is an award-winning writer and editor with a demonstrated history in the workers' compensation industry. As director of public relations at Enlyte, Mr. Kerr is responsible for establishing and delivering the execution of multi-channel media relations strategies, creating strategic content and carrying out tactical plans to communicate the company's product offerings and vision. He also serves as host of the popular industry podcast, Inside Workers' Comp.

©2022 Enlyte Group, LLC.

mitchell | genex | coventry