Jill Harris

Senior Vice President, Network Operations

Jill Harris is the senior vice president of network operations for Enlyte and is responsible for network development of the Enlyte and Qualcare networks and Operations management of the Enlyte and Qualcare networks. The Network Operations team, under Jill’s leadership is responsible for WC and Auto network development, contract implementation and credentialing, network demographic currency, bill repricing, provider and client services and provider dispute resolution. Jill holds a BA in Communication and Journalism and has over 30 years of experience in network management, training, acquisition management, and team leadership. Jill lives in Waterford Michigan, with her husband Mike where they enjoy lake life and love to travel. She is blessed with 4 adult children, two daughter in-laws, and a granddaughter.

©2022 Enlyte Group, LLC.