Anne Levins

Senior Vice President, Products & Analytics

Anne Levins is the senior vice president of products and analytics for Network Solutions. She leads a team responsible for identifying new product opportunities, assessing product performance, and helping develop long-term strategic plans for growth. Throughout her 25+ tenure in the workers' comp managed care industry, Anne has held various positions in customer service, account management, product development and information management.

©2022 Enlyte Group, LLC.