Workers' Comp

The Rise of a Real-life Robocop: Meet Jeremy

1 MIN READ

What if everything you've worked for was lost in a single moment?

Jeremy Romero always wanted to be a police officer. For 13 years he lived out his dream, until a devastating crash left him near death and paralyzed from the waist down. Find out how Jeremy defied the odds to rise above his life-changing injuries.

Update: Jeremy “Robocop” Romero Named 2017 Comp Laude Winner! Presented by workers’ comp industry news site WorkCompCentral, the Comp Laude Awards are designed to recognize integrity, excellence, and success in the field. Each year, nominations are received and reviewed by a panel of industry judges who make the final determination for honorees.

For more stories like this, check out our From the Heart series, which demonstrate how our case managers change lives every day by helping injured workers return to their jobs safely and efficiently.

©2022 Enlyte Group, LLC.

mitchell | genex | coventry