Jim Begg

Vice President, National Accounts

Jim Begg is the vice president of national accounts for Specialty Solutions. He has worked in the workers' compensation industry since 1987 and has extensive experience in various account management and sales roles. Jim is responsible for the oversight of the Specialty Solutions account management team, directly oversees key accounts and works closely with the operations team to drive positive buying experiences.

©2022 Enlyte Group, LLC.