Are Your Workersâ€™ Comp Partners Misclassifying Their Independent Contractors?

A recent WC Magazine article, "The New Cost of Mistaken Identity," spotlights liability risks workersâ€™ compensation payers may face in misclassifying workers as independent contractors to avoid paying certain wages, benefits and taxes. With recent Department of Labor (DOL) initiatives designed to stop the practice, this article details the legalities of classification and examines vendor relationships to reduce potential risk.

To obtain a deeper understanding of the issues and steps needed to minimize your risk exposure from the DOL initiatives download today.
