Sarah Deaver, Esq.

Senior Director, Disability Programs

Sarah Deaver, Esq. serves as senior director of disability programs at Enlyte. Leveraging more than 16 years of Social Security experience, Sarah leads national Social Security operations across the Disability Absence and Ticket to Work divisions, bringing a powerful blend of legal, clinical and operational expertise to a nationally distributed team. As both a licensed attorney and registered nurse, she transforms complex regulatory requirements, evolving policy and medical evidence into clear, defensible strategies that strengthen compliance, improve consistency and support better claimant outcomes.
